The Conference presents an excellent opportunity to gather the Recovery Community from throughout New York State (and beyond!) to teach, to learn, to inspire, and to celebrate Recovery from addiction to alcohol and other drugs. Your support of this important event will help to guarantee its success and ultimately benefit the millions of New York individuals and families seeking or working to sustain Recovery.

This conference is aimed at individuals interested in furthering Recovery efforts in New York. Attendees will include a mix of individuals and family members in recovery, program administrators and directors, clinical staff, addiction recovery professionals from local, state and federal organizations and other recovery allies. We hope you'll consider joining us as a sponsor and/or exhibitor. Packages for the Conference are detailed on the following pages.
