

- The workshop is designed for participants whose applications for full-CRPA (Certified Recovery Peer Advocate) have already been approved by New York Certification Board (NYCB) - that is, candidates who have:
  - completed both the educational (46 hours) and work experience (500 hours; 25 supervised) requirements; and
  - been invited to schedule the IC&RC exam, or have already confirmed an exam date
- The workshop offers the following content:
  - revisits core concepts from the practice-specific education (CCAR-Recovery Coach Academy, or NYCB approved equivalent, and Peer Ethics)
  - explores individual attitudes and concerns regarding taking the exam
  - outlines the purpose and process of the exam
  - implements a real-time sample test with full debrief
  - recommends further study and networking opportunities
- The workshop is developed and delivered by Ruth Riddick and leverages the following expertise:
  - Certified Addiction Recovery Coach, NYCB
  - Community Outreach, ASAP-NYCB
  - Peer Recovery Subject Matter Expert, IC&RC
  - Authorized Recovery Coach Trainer, CCAR-CART
  - Recovery Coach Professional, CCAR
- The workshop was introduced in early 2017 and continues to be offered on a regular basis at Exponents in Manhattan
- The workshop is offered as a community service with the compliments of ASAP-NYCB
