A Recovery Coach is anyone committed to promoting recovery from addiction by assisting recoverees to remove barriers to recovery, generating individualized recovery options, and connecting recoverees with recovery support services designed to build recovery capital.

Glossary
- Recoveree: anyone interested in, seeking or maintaining sustained recovery from a substance use/addictive disorder; may be referred to as a “client.”
- Recovery Coach: anyone interested in or committed to recovery coaching
- Certified Addiction Recovery Coach: anyone who has completed the certification process and is actively certified as a Certified Addiction Recovery Coach (CARC)
- Recovery Partnerships: any proactive and supportive relationship designed to promote recovery
- Recovery Coach Supervisor: an experienced recovery coach who is trained to provide mentorship, consultation, assistance and coaching for recovery coaches.

Domain 1: Recovery from Addiction
1. Promote recovery by utilizing compassionate, empowering, hopeful and optimistic strategies
2. Utilize strategies to build recovery capital and reduce risk associated with addiction
3. Understand and respect multiple pathways of recovery and embrace a recovery orientation
4. Recognize individualized needs and assist recoverees connect with diverse recovery modalities, recovery support and treatment services
5. Understand and recognize the full continuum of substance use disorders/addictive disorders
6. Knowledge of Recovery-Oriented Systems of Care (ROSC) and the role of a recovery coach

Domain 2: Recovery Coaching
7. Utilize stage-specific change strategies and coaching techniques that enhance motivation, establish rapport, build trust and facilitate change
8. Develop with the recoveree a comprehensive understanding of the recovery coaching relationship including the shared expectations, goals, limitations and requirements
9. Recognize a recoveree’s need for individualized support options and determine their readiness for change
10. Develop recovery plans based upon the recoveree’s preferences, goals and strengths and include family members and significant others involved in the recovery process
11. Navigate care systems including recovery supports, behavioral health treatment providers, medical providers, state agencies, entitlements, criminal justice, child welfare and other systems as needed
12. Develop recovery partnerships with recovery support and other service providers
13. Recognize a potential crisis situation and respond appropriately
Domain 3: Recovery Education

14. Provide education to each recoveree about the process of recovery as it relates to their goals, choices, preferences and readiness for change
15. Provide information to the community about recovery from addiction to reduce stigma, end discrimination and encourage recovery partnerships
16. Provide information about the benefits of healthy behaviors by offering information and basic education to support positive change, health and wellness
17. Share positive and helpful information about recovery and encourage others to do the same
18. Maintain current knowledge of recovery support services, resources and systems of care
19. Provide information that encourages prevention of addiction and related behaviors, mental health promotion, and wellness.

Domain 4: Ethical Responsibility

20. Adhere to the NYCB Code of Ethical Conduct and Disciplinary Procedures
21. Recognize and maintain appropriate boundaries and ensure dual relationships do not negatively impact the recovery coaching relationship
22. Share information about a recoveree only when they are present for and authorize disclosure OR obtain written consent that complies with federal and state law
23. Maintain knowledge of all federal & state regulations regarding mandatory reporting, confidentiality, record keeping and consent procedures
24. Seek ongoing regularly scheduled consultation & coaching from a recovery coach supervisor
25. Recognize the importance of self-care and personal wellness
26. When working with a recoveree avoid any activities outside the scope of the CARC role including counseling services, 12-step sponsorship or “working” the 12 steps, medical advice or “playing doctor”, and spiritual advisor
27. Avoid conflicts of interests, exchange of goods and services, potential exploitation and financial arrangements not in the best interest of the recoveree

- developed by the Connecticut Certification Board, June 14, 2012

Educational Requirements for CARC certification in NYS:

60 hours of NYCB approved training specific to these domains:

- Recovery from Addiction: 16 hours
- Recovery Coaching: 20 hours
- Recovery Education: 5 hours
- Medication Assisted Treatment: 4 hours
- Ethical Responsibility: 15 hours