

Continuing Education-Approved Trainings | Renewal Hours (CARC/CRPA)

Contact: Ruth Riddick, Program Manager, ASAP-NYCB Trainer Registry & Training Approval rriddick@asapnys.org
See video at <http://www.asapnys.org/ny-certification-board/renewal-program/>

Minimum continuing education required for renewal:

Certified Addiction Recovery Coach (CARC)	15 hours recovery-specific education	plus	3 hours Peer Ethics
Certified Recovery Peer Advocate (CRPA)	24 hours recovery-specific education	plus	4 hours Peer Ethics

Build your Recovery-Specific continuing education portfolio with these non-clinical, SUD-focused skills and topics:

- Communication Skills such as purposeful conversation; motivational interviewing; strategic story sharing
- Resource Building including local and community; public/private; state and nationwide
- Hot-button topics that bring challenges into the conversation - for example, spirituality in recovery; cultural humility and competence; managing conflict and professional detachment; etc.
- Trends in the peer recovery profession including one-time documented attendance at Bronx Council on Alcohol and Substance Use Disorders; CCAR webinars; OASAS Alumni Association; OASAS-Recovery Implementation Team (RIT)

Choose from the following approved courses and visit the ASAP-NYCB Trainer Registry for further information on the trainers (<http://www.asapnys.org/asap-nycb-trainer-directory/>). The following are offered at different price-points; several are free.
