Front Sight Focused: Healing the Past for a Successful Future is a project of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse Providers of New York State's (ASAP) Veteran Committee. The committee consists of professionals from over ten substance use disorders services and/or medical providers servicing Veterans throughout New York State. The Veterans Affairs Committee seeks to help promote and educate service providers on best practices to ensure that the special needs for veterans are met. We also help coordinate and promote networking and collaboration opportunities between providers that offer veteran services.

Effective responses to these challenges include leveraging the special experience and expertise of fellow Veterans. This joint presentation is offered by a Veteran with both management and community expertise in substance use disorder (SUD) and treatment services and a nationally recognized expert in addiction recovery, recovery coaching and peer professionals. Malik Hutchinson and Ruth Riddick bring their separate and shared knowledge and experience to a discussion of the prevalence of SUD among Veterans and their partnership in the development of a peer recovery support model designed to add value to the formal SUD continuum of care.

12:35 pm - 12:45 pm	Missing Man Table Presentation
12:45 pm - 1:45 pm	Keynote Luncheon Alan C. Mack, Author, RAZOR 03 – A NIGHT STALKER’S WARS The attacks of September 11, 2001, prompted the creation of a robust and deadly special operations force — Task Force Dagger. Alan C. Mack, Callsign Razor 03, led one of two teams of MH-47E helicopters and armed MH-60s. Their two-fold mission – Personnel Recovery (PR) and Unconventional Warfare(UW) involved flying in terrain and weather previously not thought possible. But, if that wasn’t enough, they pushed the flight envelope of their specially modified Chinooks to the limit and beyond. Alan shares his behind-the-scenes perspective of the Horse Soldier’s infil into Afghanistan. He discusses the hunt for Usama Bin Laden at Tora Bora and describes his shootdown during Operation Anaconda. Years later, he chased Bowe Bergdahl, rescued hostages in Iraq, and the Lone Survivor from the Kunar Valley. Alan’s near-death experiences and frequent deployments not only affected him but pushed his wife toward prescription opioids. Her developing addiction led to friction as he kept her secret and continued to deploy. He lived by his unit’s motto, Night Stalkers Don’t Quit! He wouldn’t quit on his unit – he couldn’t quit on his family. His story of success, tragedy, and ultimate happiness is as old as warfare itself. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Every War has a human element — The untold story of a Night Stalker’s success, tragedy, and personal redemption. • Ten years of deployments brought Alan monumental success and crushing sadness — both provide intriguing accounts of War, love, determination, and emotional resilience.
1:45 pm - 1:55 pm	BREAK
2:00 pm - 3:00 pm	Breakout Session 1: The Hidden Battle: Problem Gambling Among Veterans Jonathan Crandall, BSW, CRPA, VSR, New York Council on Problem Gambling Gambling has been a part of the U.S. military since the Civil War. Leaders of the Union and Confederate Armies spoke on the maleficence associated with gambling within its ranks. Although ingrained in military culture, gambling is associated with risk and co-occurring conditions linked to military service. One of these risks is suicide. As a population, Veterans are at an increased risk for suicide. Problem gambling behavior has the highest rate of suicidal behavior than other addictions. This is concerning, but help is available. Learn how screening and awareness can mitigate the Veteran population's risk for problem gambling and suicide.

	Breakout Session 2: Warrior to Civilian: Surviving Life's Daily Stressors "Emotional Well Being" James MacFarlane, LCSW, Senior Director, Hands on Health Associates The Social Determinants of Health are categorized under 5-Domains all of which will be touched upon. However, the workshop will focus specifically Social and Community Context . Drawing upon what is known to impact health (specifically mental health) in this domain, the workshop will make clear distinctions between mental health and mental illness (these terms are not interchangeable), as well as focus on a very critical component of mental health that requires more targeted and focused discussion-"emotional well-being." Self-harm within the veteran community, which remains one of the veterans' most serious health concerns, will be explored but only to contextualize the theme, which is the very critical and inextricable role of emotional well-being that often goes "underlooked." Lastly, the workshop will elicit ideas from the audience about how to engage in "wellness checks" of newly separated veterans and/or how to reach those who have seemingly adjusted to civilian life. The workshop will seek to draw attention to red flags, changes in demeanor/behavior, isolative behavior, and other indicators of changes in one's mental health and emotional well-being.
	Breakout Session 3: Trauma Informed Approach to Veteran's Treatment Jeremy Baumann, CASAC, Director, St. Joseph's Veteran's Residential Program Lindsay Mozdzier, CASAC, Deputy Director, St. Joseph's Veteran's Residential Program Through this training, we hope to provide insight into how we incorporate the commitments of the Sanctuary Model to help address and treat veterans with significant trauma. Specific attention will be given to the commitments themselves as well as how they can contribute to a trauma informed environment that offers a sense of safety as individuals address treatment issues.
3:20 pm - 4:20 pm	Closing Plenary: Serving the Guardian Population Together Chris Masters, Executive Director, Access: Supports for Living Alex Othmer, Founder, Guardian Revival Col. Angela Woods, Chief Administrative Officer, Access: Supports for Living The upcoming presentation aims to highlight the importance of collaboration in providing comprehensive services to veterans and service providers. The focus will be on the core competencies of our clinical team, the utilization of canine support in our Mental Health (MH) school program, and the connections between Guardian Revival's non-clinical services and Access's clinical services. By leveraging these synergies, we aim to create a force multiplier or service stacking effect, where partnerships lead to a greater impact and increased access to services for individuals.
