Membership Benefits

Advocacy & Representation

Join community-based service providers across New York State to influence health care policy, shape behavioral health industry standards, and increase access to addiction and mental health services at the state and federal level, including New York City. Services include:

- policy analysis with projected impacts;
- meeting facilitation with key decision-makers;
- coalition and association partnerships;
- memos, comment letters, white papers and other support;
- convening of experts to develop policy solutions; and
- technical assistance.

Access to a Network of Subject Matter Experts

- Receive curated, timely communications and webinar updates on important policies, emerging trends, programmatic developments, and current events impacting mental health and substance use disorders services.
- Monthly virtual membership updates, annual conferences, and other carefully curated in-person events and virtual summits.
- Member-led Committees focused on advancing policy priorities, including regulatory relief, prevention, special populations, and more.
